

THE VANCOUVER SUN

Headlines are a key commodity in today's media landscape. The Vancouver Sun is no exception, with its masthead featuring a variety of headlines that catch the eye.

Can the TransLink board be fired?

Opposition leader Morgan seeks mass vote

TransLink board members are facing a vote of confidence. The board is responsible for the region's transit system, and its decisions can have a major impact on the lives of millions of people.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2015 | BREAKING NEWS: VANCOUVERSUN.COM

ARTS & LIFE II C5

HOUSEWARES | VALENTINE'S DAY

Home is where the heart is

Trust your instincts and the daily rituals of those you are buying for this Valentine's Day. It doesn't have to be an occasion for disposable, one-day-only appropriate gifts, when there's so much out there that both celebrates the moment and is entirely useful. Here are five charming and practical items crafted for spending time together.

Rebecca Kellor, Special To The Sun

TEA FORTWO

There is perhaps nothing more romantic than someone making you a cup of tea in the morning. The Random Hearts teapot by Indigo breathes life into a time-tested tradition and will remind the recipient of your feelings all year round.

Indigo.ca | $39.50

THE WAY TO ANYONE'S HEART ACTUALLY

Man or woman, a home-cooked meal pretty much tops the list of best things to receive on Valentine's Day. The French have taken home-cooked cuisine to another level with Le Creuset's new Sugar-Pink Heart Casserole dish, made from its signature cast iron and holding 1.9 litres. It is available at the company's flagship stores across Canada.

Phone to order: 1-403-262-1128 | $225

CLINK

A fun twist on another proven ritual, Pottery Barn's XOXO Double Old Fashioned Glasses come in a rich ruby red colour and as a set of two, so perfect for Valentine's Day, or any old day worth celebrating being together.

Pottery Barn | $24 (for a set of 2)