Just don't miss your flight

Airlines take it a notch further by pampering you while you wait to board

If you are going to miss your flight and just spend the rest of your life in the airport, Cathay Pacific, which was voted best airline in the world for the fourth year in a row, is probably your best bet. At their five flagship lounges in Hong Kong, there's a chic juice bar, noodle bar, "long bar" serving cocktails and tapas, and a bakery offering freshly made pizzas and butter cookies. In the Wing, Cathay's firstclass lounge in Hong Kong, the walls are eucalyptus, and Italian architect Antonio Citterio designed the armchairs. In the Wing, you'll also find private "cabanas," with a soaking tub, shower and daybed. In other words, it beats sitting at the gate with an $11 coffee and your luggage on your knees.
