Clothes for Cool Kids at Redfish

By SHERI RADFORD

Pinwheel kimono, at Redfish Kids

You'll be wishing you were a child again when you step into Redfish Kids. The adorable dresses, skirts, shirts, shorts and pants are all made right here in Vancouver using durable fabrics in vibrant prints. Each item is designed to grow with the child, so this summer's dress becomes next summer's sun top. Most ingenious of all is the kimono onesie (pictured), which eliminates the struggle to get baby limbs into the right tiny openings. Cute and clever.
