REDFISH KIDS CLOTHING

On the 6th day of Christmas your true love, Santa Jilly, is bringing to theeeeeee a $500 gift card to Redfish Kids!!!!

If you don't know what Redfish Kids is, it is locally made kids clothing that is 100% sweat shop free and absolutely adorable to boot!!! Their clothing is created with quality materials that are handpicked from around the world – to local craftsmanship and zero in-house waste. I wish almost all pieces were made in grownup sizes for me too!!! I couldn't leave the store without picking up some cute pieces for my nephew Charlie. I mean how amazing is this Simon Says vest and these Rolled boater pants. Redfish Kid's "Clothing for the Courageous" motto reflects the brand's commitment to children and serves as a celebration of their courage, creativity and unlimited potential to shape the future. Now this is my kinda clothing ... especially for the wee ones in my life!!
