

THE VANCOUVER SUN

VANCOUVER SUN BLOG NETWORK / STAFF

IN THE GARDEN

My exotic south-east Asia garden tour

July 4, 2015, 7:22 am • Section: In the Garden

Share 16 Tweet 6 G+ 0

ShareThis

My first garden tour of 2016 will be to south-east Asia. It will be a customized 16-day adventure from Feb.25 to March 11 to see fabulous gardens, temples, landscapes and much more in Singapore and Myanmar, starting and ending with some thrilling days in Hong Kong.

I believe when you take a thorough look at the itinerary you'll see that it is indeed a tour of exceptional value, packed with quality destinations and a terrific schedule of activities.

It has been arranged for me by Vancouver travel expert Julius Yan, of Laurus Travel, in whom I have the utmost confidence for professional attention and the ability to produce a complex tour of excellent value.

Shangri-La-Hotel-Singapore

For starters, you will be staying four nights at the legendary Shangri-La Hotel – not that hard to take – but also visiting some spectacular sights, including the Skybridge at Pinnacle (Google it, if you think I am exaggerating). By the way, all our hotels are four stars or better.

I asked to do this tour when the weather is the best for us. It can be hot and humid other times of the year, but the weeks we have picked are considered ideal for comfortable travelling and sightseeing.

The price is $6,975, which includes airfare with Cathay Pacific, one of the world's top airlines, most meals, plus all gratuities for our local English-speaking guides, drivers, baggage handling and airport transfers. Hotels are all four-star or better. See photos here.

Your next step is to secure your spot on this exceptional tour by calling Julius or Maggie at 604-438-7718 (1-877-507-1177 toll free) or by email at info@laurustravel.com. Contact them soon to ensure your spot.

To see a complete itinerary click here:

Aureum Palace Hotel in Bagan

Mandalay