Sipping on a hot mug of cocoa is one of winter's greatest pleasures. Wonderfully indulgent and comforting, this beverage is guaranteed to warm your spirits on the most frigid of days.

Whether you like your hot chocolate ultra thick, on the bitter side, or topped with whipped cream, here's our list of where to sip on the best hot chocolate in Vancouver.

With an array of chocolatey treats (in the form of cookies, pastries, macarons, and crumbles) it should come as no surprise that David Hawksworth's downtown Bel Café whips up a memorable cup of hot cocoa. Made with 70 per cent Valrhona Dark Chocolate, Bel Café's drinking chocolate is heavenly; it's mildly sweet and smooth to drink.
