

Wine and Dine at Vancouver's Most Romantic Restaurants

It's doesn't matter if you've been together forever, or you're newly coupled, good food, a bottle of wine, and an inviting atmosphere are sure to bring romance into your evening. If you're planning your next date night, there's a good chance that one of these Vancouver restaurants will make their heart beat a little faster.

There's something incredibly sensual about enjoying a meal as a shared experience and Espana Restaurant doesn't disappoint. This West End restaurant is small, but mighty and serves up tapas-style dishes that can be washed down with a glass of wine or sherry. The intimate space means you'll be extra close to your date—perfect for hand holding and foot grazing.

A solid French restaurant is a no-fail choice when it comes to romance. It could be the butter, the wine, or perhaps the memories it evokes from a trip to the Eiffel Tower, regardless, you'll find romance at Les Faux Bourgeois. An added bonus? It's affordable, so grab a bottle of bubbles to toast to your evening when you get home.

When it comes to fine dining, you've got options. If you've got a decent budget to work with, a date night at Hawksworth is worth the splurge. A meal here will be met with beautiful food and wine, incredible service, and an elegant atmosphere—you can't go wrong at Hawksworth.

1 Hawksworth Restaurant

Chef David Hawksworth is well known on a global scale, and after a meal at Hawksworth, it's not hard to see why. Through dedication, consistency, and a love for food, each plate is a piece of culinary art that will wow your senses and satiate your hunger. Located inside of the striking Rosewood Hotel Georgia, the dining room exudes sophistication and style, while the service is gracious and warm. Starting your day off with breakfast or brunch at Hawksworth is the perfect place to celebrate a special occasion, or to impress your dining guests. Situated on West Georgia, it makes it convenient for business lunches, or after work drinks. They are open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, so a special meal is possible almost any time of day.
