

TO DIE FOR X
Vancouver

LADURÉE BOUTIQUE AND TEA SALON OPENS THURSDAY, MARCH 24TH

MARCH 22, 2016 BY ERIN IRELAND

France's most celebrated pâtisserie opens on Vancouver's Robson Street

Step inside a world of 19th century elegance and Parisian style at Ladurée Boutique and Tea Salon, which opens this Thursday, March 24th on Robson Street in the heart of Vancouver.

Known for creating the world's most delectable macarons, the celebrated French pâtisserie opens its first location in Canada with an exquisite Boutique and Tea Salon. It takes its design inspiration from the rich history of Ladurée, which goes back to 1862 when Louis Ernest Ladurée, a man from the southwest of France, opened a bakery on 16 Rue Royale in Paris.

Behind a façade much like that of the historic Rue Royale boutique, food lovers can stroll under painted angel-scattered skies to find marble-topped gold counters filled with macarons and pastries.

"We're honoured to bring a taste of France to Canada," says David Holder, president of Ladurée.

"Vancouverites will be the first in the country to have the opportunity to experience the elegance of a Parisian tea salon and can take a piece of Paris home with them from our charming boutique."

The refined tea salon offers irresistible culinary treats from Ladurée's chefs and the boutique presents a selection of beautifully boxed macarons, viennoiseries, teas, jams and a collection of perfumed candles and home fragrances. A delicious maple syrup macaron will be offered specially for the Canadian opening.

Serving an exclusive menu of sweet and savoury delights, the Tea Salon features beautiful panels depicting the four seasons and Carrara marble-topped cream wooden tables in the bijou salon. Lyre back chairs in rose and almond green hues, and small floral benches, provide comfortable seating for guests.

Look out for a special opening treat of a limited edition of Yuko Higuchi macaron gift boxes that were designed for Easter and available until Monday March 28th.

Ladurée Tea Salon and Boutique is located at 1141 Robson Street, Vancouver, BC. Open seven days a week, 10am to 9pm. For more information, visit www.laduree.com or follow on Instagram: @LadureeCanada / #LadureeVancouver.

hawksworth
communications

LADURÉE
ITSTODIEFOR.CA, MARCH 22, 2016