

Best afternoon tea in Vancouver

BY LINDSAY WILLIAM-ROSS , JESS FLEMING
9:00 AM PDT, MON APRIL 25, 2016

Prepare to pour and pick up those delicate cups and indulge in the refined custom of afternoon tea service.

While the terms “afternoon tea” and “high tea” have become muddled, and casually interchangeable, thanks to Vancouver’s many tea rooms you can enjoy a variety of interpretations of the tradition.

Whether you are treating a loved one to a fancy day out, celebrating with friends, or just craving a tower of triangle sandwiches and cream-smothered scones, raise your china cup of Earl Grey to being in one of the nation’s finest cities for tea and tea-time treats.

Here’s where you’ll find the best afternoon (or high) tea service in Vancouver.

Ladurée Vancouver

Photo courtesy of Ladurée

In addition to their wildly popular macarons, the recently opened Ladurée Boutique and Tea Salon on Robson offers an afternoon tea menu, which is available all day and features madeleines, financiers, macarons, yoghurt, salade de fruits, plus Ladurée tea, coffee, or hot chocolate. The charming tea room boasts a cozy, refined atmosphere, and is the ideal place to enjoy a pot of tea.

Address: 1141 Robson Street

Phone: 604-336-3030

Instagram: @ladureecanada

hawksworth
communications

LADURÉE

VANCITYBUZZ.COM, APRIL 25, 2016