9/17 Have a taste of Paris at Laduree High Tea

Transport mom to Paris for the day with a High Tea at the newly opened Laduree. Afternoon tea costs $40 per person and includes madeline, financier, three macarons, yoghurt, salade de fruits, and Laduree tea, coffee or hot chocolate. Drawing inspiration from the 18th century, the Laduree tea salon features beautiful panels with allegorical depictions of the four seasons across the walls. Rose and almond green-hued furniture, Lyre back chairs and small floral benches are arranged around cream wooden tables topped with Carrara marble for a sophisticated tea with the family.
