

Ten purely Canadian deals

NICOLE FEENSTRA
Postmedia Network

If the value of our dollar has you hesitant to travel this summer, there are plenty of new packages and attractions in Canada sure to scratch that vacation itch on a budget. Here are 10 ideas.

Miramichi, N.B.

The No. 1 hotel in New Brunswick on TripAdvisor, Rodd Miramichi River Hotel, invites Canadians to visit this summer with the Fish Inn package. One night in a standard room, breakfast, a four-hour salmon fishing trip with instruction and professional guide, use of fishing gear and licence are all included. Rates start at $179 per person. Available now through Oct. 15. See roddvacations.com.

Mont-Tremblant, Que.

Discover one of Quebec's top winter destinations in summer. Book a stay now through June 21 and receive up to 30% off lodgings, plus unlimited free access to the scenic gondola at participating establishments. Kiefer Sutherland plays a free show on June 18. The actor-musician will perform songs from his new album Down In A Hole. And this is the 15th year for Rythmes Tremblant, a string of free outdoor shows between July 22-31. See tremblant.ca.

Port Colborne, Ont.

For a different kind of summer vacation, look no further than Sheraton Shores Resort on Lake Erie. The beachfront property has both RV sites and cabins, pools, sports, trails and other activities.

Travelling early this year? The four nights for the price of three deal on RV sites and cabins is available for Monday through Friday stays until June 23 on reservations made by June 20. This August, get 25% off mid-week stays Aug. 8-12, Aug. 15-19, Aug. 22-26 or Aug. 29-Sept. 2. Reservations must be made by Aug. 12. See carefreecommunities.com.

Niagara Falls

Everyone knows Ontario's Niagara region produces fantastic

British Columbia's Fernie Mountain Resort has new high alpine activities this summer, including the first lift-access camping in North America. A new craft beer tour hops around Niagara this summer, inset.

wines, but what many travellers may not know is the area also has a burgeoning craft beer industry.

Discover the brews of Niagara this summer with the Magnificent Brewery Tour by Magnificent Tours, which visits four Niagara breweries with sampling at each. Tours, which run Saturdays throughout the summer, depart Niagara Falls at 1:30 p.m. from select hotels.

Magnificent Tours has also partnered with the Marriott Fallsview Niagara Falls Hotel & Spa on a post-tour dinner deal at the hotel's Terrapin Grille. This package starts at $99, or $69 for just the tour. See magnificentniagarafallstours.com or niagarafallsmarriott.com.

Quebec City

The Four Points Quebec Resort is just 10 minutes from Old Quebec City and, with the complimentary shuttle, it's easy to enjoy both resort's spa, golf course and other activities, and the city this summer. Unwind with the Spa Days package, which includes accommodations, two one-hour massages and breakfast for two. From $275 per night. Book online at fourpointsquebecresort.com/spa-packages with code MASSAGE.

Banff National Park

Get your thrill on in Canada's oldest national park this summer. The Delta Banff Royal Canadian Lodge, inside Banff National Park, is the jumping off point for a family adventure, with activities ranging from theloden.com for details.

Fernie, B.C.

Located in the Rockies, Fernie Alpine Resort has new activities this summer, proving this adventure-seekers' destination is not just for winter visits.

Stay cool at the sub-zero ice bar in Lizard Creek Lodge, or sleep high up in an alpine meadow as Fernie offers North America's first lift-access camping. And the new Aerial Park Kids' Area features zip lines, suspended bridges, ropes and climbing at various skill levels. See kifernie.com.

Stirling, B.C.

If you've never explored Whistler in the summer, this is the time to do so. Hiking, biking, fishing and an abundance of local food make summer a special time in the mountain village. A Staycation, Save More offer this year offers savings up to 40% on a four-day stay. See whistler.com.

Kelowna, B.C.

Hosting Kelowna's Big White Festival in the summer means more on accommodations. Offered prices start at as little as $19 per night, making it affordable for everyone to soak up the sun in a tub on a chalet deck or stay on the side this summer. Big White's dog trails open July 1, and family-friendly festivals run throughout the year. See bigwhite.com.

Victoria/Vancouver

Victoria's Magnolia Hotel & Spa has teamed up with the Loden Hotel in Vancouver to offer the 'Best of Two Cities' package. This unique travel deal offers a combined four-night experience with two nights spent in each city, at each hotel with a seaplane flight transporting visitors between the two. The package also includes daily breakfast for two, late check-out and a 35-minute Harbour Air flight to and from Victoria. Both properties have complimentary bikes.

The package is available now through Sept. 30. Rates start at $459.50 per night in May, June and September, and from $509.50 per night in July and August. See

MURDER IN MIDTOWN
» PAGE 5

SUN EXCLUSIVE
T.O.'s tiniest crime victim
'a fighter' until the bitter end
» PAGE 3

Sister of murder victim talks to Joe Warrington

BABY KYRIE
MAY 15 - JUNE 5, 2016

hawksworth communications

MAGNOLIA HOTEL & SPA
TORONTO SUN, JUNE 8, 2016