If the value of the Canadian dollar has you hesitant to travel this summer, there are plenty of new packages and attractions within the country sure to scratch that vacation itch on a budget. Find our top 10 Canadian summer staycation deals in the gallery.

Victoria/Vancouver: Victoria's Magnolia Hotel & Spa is teaming up with the Loden Hotel in Vancouver to offer the 'Best of Two Cities' package this summer. This unique travel deal offers a combined four-night experience with two nights spent in each city, at each hotel with a seaplane flight transporting visitors between the two. The package also includes daily breakfast for two, late check-out and a 35-minute Harbour Air flight to and from Victoria. Both properties also offer complimentary bikes. This package is available now through Sept. 30, 2016. Rates start at $459.50 per night in May, June and September and from $509.50 per night in July and August. For more details or to book, visit theloden.com. (Courtesy Magnolia Hotel & Spa)
