HONOURABLE MENTIONS

*The Pear Tree, Cioppino's
Mediterranean Grill and Enoteca*

One might imagine that in a year that saw many key individuals spending time at chef David Hawksworth's upstart Nightingale, the chef's namesake restaurant might slip just a bit. Not a chance. Hawksworth, this category's reigning champ (it's won Best Upscale every year since it opened in 2011) continues to perfect a mélange of imaginative food, an amazing wine list and note-perfect service that make it the obvious choice when the occasion—be it a 50th wedding anniversary or an impromptu Tuesday night—demands that everything be just so. Silver goes to the resurgent CinCin, which proves that a dedicated team can turn any room around, while bronze goes to the often-overlooked Bauhaus, a restaurant that's working hard to bring an elevated experience to uber-casual Gastown.
